

Oliver Tscherning's artistic sensibility is made visible through his fashion, from his fashion to his fashion. In this fashion, by Tscherning.

North West's patchwork creation for Alexander McQueen's Fall 2005 collection. The dress is made of silk and features intricate patterns and textures.

Anthony Vaccarello's surreal vision of a woman in a black dress with a large red rose. The image is a blend of fashion and art.

Hide the face, show the dress. A woman in a long, patterned dress sitting in a field, holding up a large, sheer fabric. The image is a blend of fashion and art.

Sea change

We may be soaking up the last of the golden summer sun, but thoughts are already racing ahead to a new season bursting with fresh ideas – and subsequent shopping lists. Where to begin? Smarten up. The surge in sitting is certainly one way to embrace fashion's headline news: now colour and clean lines are a winning combination.
